ANNIVERSARY EXPRESSIONS

— kuratorial —

Philo Art Space berulang tahun ke-7 pada tanggal 9 september 2012. Waktu yang cukup memberikan makna dalam menelusuri seluk-beluk dunia senirupa Indonesia, khususnya bagi kesejarahan senirupa kontemporer. Ruang gerak Philo Art Space (PAS) tidaklah seluas kiprah galeri-galeri lainnya karena untuk senirupa kontemporer Indonesia pun hanya memfokuskan perhatian pada tema atau isu-isu urban.

Bidikan pada “urban culture” jelas karena alasan kontekstual saja. Banyak sekali peristiwa, kasus, isu sangat menantang yang muncul untuk dire spons oleh perupa dan hal ini sudah merupakan kesadaran umum bahwa perubahan kehidupan masyarakat atau bangsa secara menyeluruh seringkali muncul atau berasal dari ruang urban. Para perupa pun mau tak mau tertantang untuk mengambil sikap apakah mengikuti arus perubahan yang tak terelakkan itu atau memantabkan niat untuk membendungnya betapa pun itu dipandang mustahil.

Budaya urban merupakan wajah berbagai macam ekspresi. Perbedaan menjadi dasar logis bagi perluasan gerak dan relasi. Setiap saat kita disodorkan oleh tampilan dalam jumlah tak terhitung motif, niat, cara, dan sejenisnya dari sejumlah besar manusia dengan latar belakang pendidikan dan budaya yang berbeda dan dengan demikianlah menyebabkan ruang urban sangat sulit terdefinisikan.

ANNIVERSARY EXPRESSIONS

PhiloArt Space is celebrating its seventh anniversary in September 9, 2012. The years have been a meaningful period for us in our journey walking through the world of Indonesia's arts, especially in the path of contemporary arts history. PhiloArt Space does not play in vast areas such as other galleries. We focus on only the contemporary arts specializing in urban themes and issues.

The spotlight on ‘urban culture’ is for contextual reason only. Urban issues or themes have given artists a lot of events, cases and issues that are challenging to be responded to; it is a general understanding that the changes in the society and the changes in the whole nations are coming from the changes in the urban space. Artists are challenged to take a stance about all the changes: either they have to go with the sweep of the flow or they gather their resolve and stand against it no matter how impossible it may seem.

Urban culture is a representation of many faces of expressions. Differences become the logical base for relation and movement extension. Every time we are offered a myriad of displays; presented in various motives, intentions, methods and other habits of people with different education and cultural background; displays which make urban space so elusive to define.

However, it is from this complexity of the urban faces that we all came to the acknowledgement that those expressions are phenomenologically driven by the desire to fulfill people's 'well being', and therefore the intentions, dreams, identities, strategies, communicative relations, competencies, and all other things cannot be taken in half focus.

The very abundance of urban faces makes it seemingly without expression. Seemingly - as we are at any time may be presented with unexpected possibilities; events that happen without notice which force the emergence of something that we call self-identity or the culture of self representation at that moment - in the events of violence, either physically or symbolically. But we would soon be back at our initial realization that the urban complexities are something that cannot be avoided and that we do not need to bathe them with too much attention. As if they are not serious enough to fight for. symbolically. But we would soon be back at our initial realization that the urban complexities are something that cannot be avoided and that we do not need to bathe them with too much attention. As if they are not serious enough to fight for.

For seven years PhiloArt Space has been actively representing various urban themes: time and space, humanity, relationship, and many others. We have been very happy with the enthusiasm and the great appre-

Bagaimanapun dari kompleksitas wajah urban kita bisa sama-sama mengakui bahwa ekspresi itu secara fenomenologis dipacu oleh kondisi hasrat demi memenuhi 'well being' dan karenanya niat, cita-cita, identitas, strategi, relasi komunikatif, ketampilan, dan sebagainya tak bisa dianggap separuh fokus.

Ekspresi wajah urban saking beragamnya justru nampak nyaris tanpa ekspresi. Nyaris karena bagaimanapun masih ada saja kemungkinan-kemungkinan yang tak diinginkan tiba-tiba terjadi dan justru mendorong apa yang kita sebut identitas diri atau kultur menyatakan diri saat itu, misalnya ketika terjadi kekerasan, fisik maupun simbolik. Tapi toh kemudian kita kembali pada kesadaran tadi bahwa kompleksitas ruang urban menjadikannya sesuatu yang dianggap tak terelakkan dan bahwa kita tak harus berlama-lama berkubang perhatian di sana. Seolah tak ada masalah yang demikian serius yang harus dipertahankan.

Selama tujuh tahun Philo Art Space beraktivitas berbagai tema urban sudah ditampilkan, soal ruang dan waktu, humanitas, relationship, dan sebagainya. Dan suatu hal yang menyenangkan tak lain adalah apresiasi masyarakat yang tinggi atas nama-nama seniman yang tergolong baru menapaki karir mereka yang kami tampilkan baik secara tunggal maupun pameran bersama.

Pada pameran merayakan HUT PAS ke-7 ini senjaja kami tak mengusung tema khusus dan kami sebut saja "Ekspresi Hari Ulang Tahun". Sebagian nama peserta pameran sudah pernah bahkan beberapa kali tampil di PAS sebagian baru pertama kali, dengan masing-masing kekhasan gaya mereka. Terima kasih banyak untuk: Cubung Wahono Putra, Doel AB, Tri Pandrong, Sardono W Kusumo, Edo Pop, Bambang Wibawarta, Nurmilisani, Samy Zimah, Farid Shikumbang.

ciation that the society has paid to the artists – artists who are quite new in the arts life; those who we have represented in single or group exhibitions.

For our seventh anniversary we intentionally do not carry special theme. We would just call our theme 'Anniversary Expressions'. Some of the artists have had their works exhibited in PhiloArt Space, but some are new names; all with their own unique styles. Our thanks to Cubung Wahono Putra, Doel AB, Tri Pandrong, Sardono W Kusumo, Edo Pop, Bambang Wibawarta, Nurmilisani, Samy Zimah, Farid Shikumbang.

Happy Exhibiting!
