BROKEN WHITE PROJECT

The Broken White Project a series of exhibition programs initiated by Ace House Collective in partnership with their supported system to present selected artists. During the program period, selected artists were encouraged to explore and re-examine their work processes with intensive assistance from Ace House Collective members as partners to encourage the development of their works and offer a series of activities that focuses on the care work to support their artistic practices.

Ace House Collective (est. 2011, Yogyakarta) is an artist collective that collaborates with communities and their networks to operate a space as an art laboratory. The collective is committed to fostering artistic potential and contributing to contemporary art practices by providing a platform for production, dialogue, and collaboration through forums, assemblies, and exchanges.

From 2014 to 2024, Ace House Collective based its first space at Mangkuyudan 41, Yogyakarta, situated within a neighborhood complex. This setting became a catalyst to engage in artistic dialogue with the surrounding community. The collective's artistic vision critically examines the role and function of contemporary art in society, often employing imitation and fictional institutions as methodologies to reinterpret artistic forms. By drawing from everyday infrastructures—such as trade bodies and institutions familiar to Indonesian society—Ace House Collective explores new ways of engaging communities with art as a shared experience, fostering discussions around social class and cultural negotiations.

Since 2025, in collaboration with Equator Art Projects, Ace House Collective has activated Langgeng Art Space to further develop its curatorial initiatives. With an emphasis on care work as an integral part of artistic practice, its programs and projects cultivate an environment of mutual support, offering activities that sustain and deepen artists' engagement with their practice.

EQUATOR ART PROJECTS

Equator Art Projects is the sister gallery of Langgeng Art Foundation, based in Yogyakarta, Indonesia. Building upon a distinguished foundation, the gallery is dedicated to advancing contemporary art practices throughout Southeast Asia.

From 2012 to 2015, Equator Art Projects operated its inaugural space at Gilman Barracks, Singapore, presenting the works of emerging and mid-career artists from Indonesia, Singapore, and the Philippines. This initiative served as a pivotal platform for fostering cross-cultural dialogue and expanding regional representation within the contemporary art discourse.

Today, Equator Art Projects remains committed to enriching the study and development of Southeast Asian art trajectory. Through a dynamic program of curated exhibitions, the gallery cultivates critical engagement and intellectual exchange, both within the region and on a global stage.
